

| 2018 ND Limits for HOME Maximum Per-Unit Subsidies | | | | |
|--|--------------|------------|---------------------|------------|
| Section 234 | | | North Dakota (262%) | |
| Bedrooms | Non-elevator | Elevator | Non-elevator | Elevator |
| 0 | $ 58,232 | $ 61,281 | $ 139,757 | $ 147,074 |
| 1 | $ 67,143 | $ 70,250 | $ 161,143 | $ 168,600 |
| 2 | $ 80,976 | $ 85,424 | $ 194,342 | $ 205,018 |
| 3 | $ 103,652 | $ 110,512 | $ 248,765 | $ 265,229 |
| 4+ | $ 115,473 | $ 121,307 | $ 277,135 | $ 291,137 |

*For a PJ whose HCP has been increased above the 240 percent, the CPD Division must cap the HOME per-unit subsidy limit at 240 percent of the Section 234 basic mortgage limit.

These limits are effective for the HOME Investment Partnerships Program (HOME) on June 4, 2018, until such date that the basic statutory mortgage limits for Multifamily Housing Programs for calendar year 2019 are published in the Federal Register.